Competitors Responsibilities

It is the responsibility of the competitor and his /her parents to enter into the divisions appropriate to the competitors age and rank for the date of the tournament. Only in the Open divisions will any rank be permitted to compete.

In case of injury, only the first aid officer, the center referee and the competitor will decide if the competitor will continue competing in that division. If the competitor suffers from concussion he / she will not be allowed to continue competition in that or any other sparring event. No refunds given in this case.

Argument from coaches, parents or competitors will not be tolerated. This will result in the competitor being disqualified instantly.

Coaching from the sidelines are not allowed. Breaking this rule will be treated as any other infringement, causing the competitor to be disqualified. Even if coached by a different person.

The competitor must report at the appropriate ring when their event is announced. They must be fully attired for that event. Sparring requires all protective equipment to be worn. Listen carefully for the announcements. The competitor is given 3 minutes to report before being disqualified from that event.

Registrations on Tournament Day / Late Registrations

Competitors may register on tournament day at the venue. This will cost the competitor an additional $25 for the privilege. These registrations must take place a minimum of 30 minutes before the events are to be run.

Good Luck!! And enjoy the day
