Competitors responsibilities

It is the responsibility of the competitor and his/her parents to enter into the division appropriate to the competitor's age for the date of the tournament.

In case of injury, only the first aid officer, the centre referee and the competitor will decide if the competitor will continue competing in that division. If the competitor suffers from concussion, he/she will not be allowed to continue.

Argument from coaches, parent or competitors will not be tolerated. This will result in the competitor or team being disqualified instantly.

Coaching from the sidelines is not allowed. The offending person will receive one warning and on the second infringement, their competitor's team will be disqualified.

The team must report at the appropriate ring when their event is announced. They must be fully attired for that event. Sparring requires all protective equipment to be worn. Listen carefully for the announcements. The team is given 3 minutes to report before being disqualified from the event.

Good Luck!! Enjoy the night!
